The Sharing Center Board Members Honored

Longwood, FL – June 4, 2009 – Two members of The Sharing Center Board of Directors were honored for their involvement and commitment to public service by Seminole County Regional Chamber of Commerce at the Chamber Choice Awards on June 4 at Orlando Hilton, Altamonte Springs.

Board Chairman Timm Godby, owner of FastSigns, Casselberry and Sanford/Lake Mary, received the Community Champion Award, and Board Member Mike McLean, Seminole County Commissioner, District 2, was named Public Servant of the Year.

The Sharing Center works to prevent hunger and homelessness in Seminole County by helping children & families with critical needs during financial emergencies caused by job loss and health problems. The Sharing Center helps with food and costs of shelter, prescription medicines and other medical needs, transportation, and referrals for aid specific to a family's needs. The Sharing Center operates a food pantry and casework offices in Longwood and in Sanford.
